Shockley Fatally Shot.

Sol Shockley, formerly of this city, was shot by a man named Coakley at Merced, California, on the night of September 18. The shooting occurred at a political meeting, and re-ulted in the wounding of three persons besides Shockley. The Argus, of that city, says: "Shockley and Coakley have both been known to figure prominently in several altercations, and the quarrel between them which led to their fight and the subsequent shooting, was caused by a disagreement about politics." Shockley's wounds are in the stomach, and are considered fatal.
